

EFAA Unacceptable Behaviour Policy

While the vast majority of members always conduct themselves in a correct and courteous manner, unfortunately, there have been instances when committee members have been subjected to confrontational, aggressive behaviour while going about their committee roles.

This results in anger and stress for the people concerned when they are trying to organise and manage events on behalf of members of our association.

To those of you who consider confrontational, aggressive behaviour to be acceptable, be assured, it is not acceptable for any member of the EFAA to be subjected to such behaviour in any circumstances.

Also remember, at the discretion of the EFAA committee, any person / persons considered guilty of such behaviour can and will be excluded from an event and in exceptional circumstances, can have their EFAA membership revoked.

If, at any time or at any EFAA event, you have an issue that concerns you, please approach and speak with a committee member in a civil manner.
